Getting ready to transfer to Madeley School

Name: __________________________________________________________

Primary School: _________________________________________________
This booklet is to give you the chance to think about moving to secondary school and to find out more about the school, the adults who work here and what it is like to be a Madeley pupil.

Some of the booklet you won’t be able to complete until you arrive, but you can use the school website, the internet and speak to friends or family members who are already pupils here.

It’s totally okay to feel anxious about change and moving school is a big step, but remember all of the adults at school are here to help and we can’t wait to meet you and welcome you to Madeley!
Now you know you will be joining Madeley School in September, it is a good idea to find out as much information as you can before you start.

Finding your way around

It can be difficult to find your way around a new environment. Here is a site map of Madeley School to help.
You may want to mark on

- Your form room
- The library
- Different subject rooms e.g. English room, Science labs, Art room, Computer suite
- The canteen
- The toilets
- The main office
- Student’s reception

Plan a route for your visit to school that will take you to some of the places marked on the map.

Draw your route on the map. Try and follow this route when you visit your School.
School Staff

There are many teachers in a secondary school, not all of them will teach you, but may be important to you in a different way. As well as being a teacher they may have another job in school. The different names for these jobs are helpful to learn.

Written below are some of the jobs that adults in Madeley School have.

The name of your form tutor
What do they do?
When will you see them?

The name of the Head of Year 7
What do they do?
When will you see them?

The name of the Head of KS3
What do they do?
When will you see them?

Is there anyone else who might help you?
What is their name?
What do they do?
When will you see them?
House Systems

At Madeley School we divide our pupils into houses that include pupils from all year groups. We run inter-house competitions in sports and other things like writing or cooking competitions to earn your house points. Points can often be earned for good work or behaviour.

The name of your house is ______________________________________ Madeley pupils are also rewarded for demonstrating our school’s core values. We want you to be exceptional role models and ambassadors inside and outside of school!

Madeley School is an inspirational place where students have an enjoyment and thirst for lifelong learning.

The mission of Madeley School is to inspire excellence in everything: attendance, teaching, learning and academic outcomes.

With a collaborative approach, we inspire excellence in an “anything is possible” growth mindset. We celebrate perseverance, resilience and risk taking.

We encourage students to take ownership of, and responsibility for their learning, so that they have the confidence and curiosity to ask questions, solve problems and respond to high quality feedback.
Madeley School Uniform

It is important to wear the right clothes when you start at Madeley School. We want you to look smart and feel like you are a member of our school community.

Find some photographs of students at Madeley School. You may find pictures on the website, in the school prospectus or you may know someone who already goes to the school who can show you.

Find out the school dress code.
Are there any clothes or jewellery you are not allowed to wear?

Lunch Break

The lunch break is between morning and afternoon lessons. It is a time when you can mix with your friends, go to a lunchtime activity, and eat your lunch.

Start   Finish   Length of break

Where can I go and what can I do at lunchtime?

At Madeley School we have a canteen system, or you can bring a packed lunch.

Make a list of some of the different types of food you can buy in the canteen:

1. _____________________________
2. _____________________________
3. _____________________________
4. _____________________________
5. _____________________________
6. _____________________________

REMEMBER you might need to bring in money or get a slip from student reception if you have free school meals.

If you bring in a packed lunch, you will need to find out

Where can you eat it? ______________________________________________________

What time do you eat it? __________________________________________________

Can you buy a drink at school? ____________________________________________

Discuss the menu you have chosen with your teacher or your parents.

- Have you chosen a variety of foods?
- Have you included fruit and vegetables in your choices?
- Are there at least 2 days that you have chosen healthy options?
Making positive choices at Madeley School

Think about how you are expected to behave at Madeley School and the reasons for this.

Fill in the chart below. If you cannot think of some reasons there are some suggestions below.

Morning routine

Before leaving for School there are a lot of things to think about, starting from the night before.

Things to think about in the morning. Put them in the right order.

- Get dressed
- Check you have the correct equipment in your bag
- Check your timetable
- Wash
- Check you have got your homework
- Clean your teeth
- Say “Goodbye”
- Check you have the correct money
- Wake up
- Eat your breakfast
- Leave for School

Any others?

You might go by car sometimes, if you do then answer these questions:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Will I go by car every day?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Who will drive me?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Will I get a lift home as well?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Remember to ask your parents to drop you off outside the school gates, if it is safe for them to do so. This makes it easier for other pupils to get into school safely!

You might go by bus sometimes, if you do then answer these questions:

Remember it is important to also plan your return journey.
Looking after yourself

Keeping fit
- Get plenty of sleep
- Do some physical exercise at least once a week

Keeping clean
- Shower or bath and wash your hair regularly, probably at least 3 or 4 times a week. This can depend on how greasy your hair gets.
- Clean your teeth at least every morning and night
- Use deodorant every morning
- Change your underwear every day.

Looking smart
- Brush your hair every day and have your haircut regularly.
- Make sure your uniform is clean.
- Look in the mirror to check that you are tidy every day before you leave home.
- Clean your shoes regularly
Money management

Home help

Give this sheet to your Mum or Dad, or whoever helps you get ready for school

Ideas for helping your son/daughter at home

The most important help you can give is continual encouragement and praise.

Talk

Encourage your son/daughter

- To talk about school - likes/dislikes, what they are good at, what they are worried about…
- To talk about books, films, hobbies etc.

Don’t pressure them they will talk when they are ready.

Organisation

- Encourage them to make a large copy of their timetable
- Display it in a prominent place
- Refer to it to remind them what lessons they have each day
- Make lists of what they need each day
- Encourage them to pack their bag with everything they need for the next day
- Encourage them to check it against the list for that day
- Don’t pack their bag for them
- Encourage them to get into a routine and do things in a similar sequence

Homework

- Help plan out extended pieces of homework over a period of days or weeks
- Check their homework diary each day
- Encourage them to have a set time to do their homework
- Help with homework
- Don’t do their work for them
- Keep an eye on the time they spend on their work. Check they do not spend too long or too little time on each piece.
- Let your child’s teacher know if they are struggling with the work, or to keep up.
School equipment

Things I need to bring every day

Every day you will need your writing equipment. Circle the equipment you need in your pencil case. Draw in anything else you need.

Some days you will need extra equipment. This will depend on the lessons you have that day. Look at your timetable and work out the additional equipment you need each day.

How to be a great friend

Here are some positive things friends do for each other to keep their friendship strong.

- Empathise. Put yourself in your friend’s situation to understand what they’re going through.

- Support. You can show your support for your friends by just listening when they want to share.

- Compliment. Everyone likes to receive a compliment. Compliment your friend on a new hairstyle, a great score on a test, a smooth football move. Be specific and keep it simple. Choose the right moment to give the compliment.

- Respect privacy. Sharing secrets is a fun part of a friendship. It’s hard to regain your friend’s trust if you tell secrets you weren’t supposed to share.

- Encourage. Use encouraging statements like, “You can do it”.

When you wonder if you are being a good friend, ask yourself this question:

Am I treating my friend like I want my friend to treat me?
Making new friends

At Madeley School you will meet students from other schools. There will be opportunities to make new friends. It can be difficult to get to know someone new.

It may help to act out meeting new people and use some of these suggestions.

- Smile when you say “Hello”.

- Start the conversation by asking a question about what they are doing “What are you doing?” or “What are you reading?”

  or about something you have in common “So how do you like this lesson?”

- Introduce yourself
  “By the way my name is _____________, what’s yours?”

- Ask some other questions to find out about them. Suitable topics may be:

  School:
  - What are you studying?
  - Who is your teacher?

  Home:
  - Where do you live?
  - How do you get to School?

  Interests:
  - What do you like doing?
  - What’s your favourite TV programme?

  Family:
  - Have you any brothers and sisters?

- If they answer your question respond to some of the information they have told you. If you can, ask another question.

  “That’s my favourite lesson too. I enjoyed working on the computers. What did you like doing?”

- Do not ask about sensitive topics. These are topics that could make the other person upset.

- Don’t ask about something that makes the person look or sound different.

- Don’t ask about any problems he or she may have.
Teasing and Sarcasm

Some teasing is done in good-natured fun, but when teasing gets out of control it can be hurtful. Before jokingly teasing a friend, ask yourself these questions:

- Is this an okay subject to tease someone about?
- Will my friend understand that I’m teasing?
- Have I been teasing my friend a lot lately?
- Will this get on my friend’s nerves?

If you are teased and you don’t like it, resist the urge to hit or push your friend. You can ignore the teasing and simply walk away, or you can respond to the teasing by trying to diffuse the situation. Try making statements like these:

- “And your point is...?”
- “I’ve heard that one in primary school”
- “Tell me when you get to the funny part”
- “Can’t you think of anything important to say?”
- “I’m sorry, were you speaking to me?”

Sarcasm can be a form of teasing. The words in this kind of teasing are nice, but the way the words are spoken adds to the teasing of sarcasm. When you use nice comments to be sarcastic, you exaggerate the expression in your voice and on your face. Say each phrase on the left in a sarcastic tone to show the meaning on the right.

- “Yeah, whatever” means: You are not bothered
- “Ah, well done” means: That’s stupid
- “Pizza face” means: Spotty face

Before you tease someone, ask yourself this question:

Am I treating this person the way I would like to be treated?
Joining-in

Joining in conversation or a group activity can be scary. However, it is one way to make new friends. Try these strategies for joining in.

Watch and listen. Observe what the group is doing. Listen to what the people are saying. Don’t interrupt.

Make a friendly comment or gesture. Nod your head and smile. Make comments like, “That’s a good idea”, or “That looks great”.

Find something you have in common with the group. Think about your own experiences. You could say, “I saw that movie”, or “I have that game at home”. Keep your comments short.

Ask to join the group. Wait for a pause in the conversation. You could say, “Can I walk with you?” “Do you need any help?” or “Can I play?”

Accept ‘no’ for an answer. Sometimes people don’t want you to be part of the group. Don’t argue or complain. Go and ask someone else.
Joining-in Situations

Here are some situations you might want to join in with. Try and plan what you may say or do. You could try acting these situations out.

1. You see three of your classmates playing football after school. You know one of them pretty well. You don’t know the other two. You’re quite good at being in goal.

3. Two classmates you know are looking at a piece of homework that you were also set, but they look stuck. You think you may know the answer to the question that they are struggling with.

Being with friends

Sometimes you have to think carefully about how you act with different people and whom you can share information with.

Getting it right
It is important to behave differently with different people.

Using the concentric circles sheet, work out who you would act in these ways with. You may choose more than one group of people.

1. Who would you hug?
2. Who could you tell what to do?
3. Who can you argue with?
4. Who can you share your sweets with?

Sharing information about yourself
It is important to talk to people to share an event, achievement or tell them about a problem. Sometimes you have to be careful whom you talk to. Some people may tease you if you are not good friends or they may not keep the information to themselves and share it with others.

Who would you tell these things to? Use the concentric circles to decide who you would share the information with.

1. You still cuddle your teddy at night.
2. You fancy the girl or boy next door.
3. You have won a competition.
4. You have not done your homework.
5. You hate peas.

Sharing information

Sometimes friends will tell you information. It can be OK to tell other people some bits of information. Other information you should tell no one, these are considered to be secrets.

It can be tempting to share secrets, but think:

- How will my friend feel if I share this secret?
- How will this affect our friendship?
- How would I feel if my friend shared a secret like this about me?

Who could you tell these things to?

1. Your friend says that they like Sam.
2. Your friend says their Dad is in jail.
3. Your friend says they are going to watch a film tonight.
4. Your friend says they hate wearing school uniform.
5. Your friend says he stays up after his mum has told him to go to bed.

Facts about bullying

Bullying:

- Is any behaviour by an individual or a group that deliberately harms another.
- Can be physical or involve threats of physical harm.
- Can be name-calling or spoken teasing.
- Can be demanding money or things, or making someone do something they do not want to do.
- Can involve excluding someone (deliberately leaving someone out of an activity, ignoring them etc.)
- Is usually repeated over a period of time.
- Takes place when one person or group has more power than the person or group being bullied.

Bullying is not:

- An accidental bump or jostle, in the school corridor, for example.
- An argument with a friend.
- A friend being nasty over something specific.
- A one-off fight or argument.

Why do people bully?

- Very few people who are happy with themselves bully others
- Sometimes bullies have been bullied themselves - they are looking for someone to take their anger out on.
- Sometimes bullies are jealous.
- Bullying can make people feel strong, respected and powerful, but they often feel bad too.
What to do about bullying

What can you do if you are bullied?

• Keep being positive; say positive things about yourself and other people.
• Be proud of who and what you are (we all belong to different groups and are all equally valuable).
• Don’t keep it to yourself: Always tell someone- a teacher, a parent or another adult.
• Think about the consequences of the different ways you might deal with bullying.
• Some ways of dealing with it are:-
  - Ignoring it or staying relaxed, fogging (see next page)
  - Being assertive- using your body language, eye-contact, tone of voice, words you say.
  - Remember why people bully.

Six good reasons to tell:

• You have the right to live without the stress or fear of being bullied.
• Taking action is better than doing nothing.
• There is nothing embarrassing about being bullied- think how many people it happens to.
• It is braver to tell than to hide it.
• If you think there is something wrong with you, is it because the bullies have made you feel this way? This is a common effect of being bullied and IT IS NOT TRUE.
• Bullying does not say anything about YOU. It says a lot about the BULLY. (If you call me a hippopotamus does it mean that I am one?)
Creating a Fog

Creating a ‘Fog’ is a technique that you can use if you feel you are being bullied.

- Remind yourself that the bully has said this to many other people - what they say tells us more about the bully than about you.

- The bully wants to see your reaction - don’t give them that satisfaction.

- Imagine a huge cloud of fog around you that swallows up insults so that they cannot affect you.

- Use a normal bored-sounding voice.

- Say something neutral:
  - “Yeah, whatever”
  - “If you say so”
  - “Well, you could be right”
  - “maybe”
  - “Ummm”
  - “Yes that’s true, I do wear glasses”

- Make sure your body language, tone of voice and the words you use all give the same message:

  ‘I’m really not bothered by anything you say or do”

Stick with it. It might not work the first time.
Asking for help

Sometimes at school things may be difficult or may go wrong. These things could be small:
- not knowing what the homework is
- not being able to find your way around

Or could be bigger:
- getting into trouble
- finding the work hard.

There are many people who could help you, but they won't know that you need help unless you tell them.

Friends  Ask friends or other students if you don’t know where to go. You can ask them what the homework was if you are not certain. They can also help to work out new situations like going to the cafeteria.

Teachers  Ask your teachers if you don’t know what to do in class or for homework. They will also be able to help you if you have forgotten something or don’t know where to go.

People at home  People at home will be able to help you plan and organise your equipment and homework. They will want to know if you have any problems. They will be able to help you work out the best person to ask if you have problems with work or may try and contact someone in school and ask them to help you.

Try and work out whom you would approach in these situations:

- You don’t know where your next lesson is.
- You cannot read your homework notes.
- You have got into trouble for forgetting your course book several times.
- In the lesson you did not understand what the teacher wanted you to do.
- You have not got a pencil which is needed to complete your work.

REMEmBER TO ASk FOR HELP!
Saying sorry

If you do break a school rule or behave in a way that upsets or hurts someone then you can show you are sorry by apologising. Sometimes this can be hard as it can be difficult to admit that you are wrong.

Here are some examples of times when you may need to say sorry.

When you forget something

- If you forget something, it is not a big problem. Everyone forgets things and it is always a good idea to say you are sorry.

- Imagine you have forgotten something. Practise saying the right words with a partner and then it will be easier when it does happen.

  For example:
  “I am sorry Sir / Miss. I’m not used to my timetable yet and I’ve forgotten to bring the right book. I will remember it for the next lesson.”

When you make a mistake

- Mistakes can sometimes happen because you did not really understand what the teacher meant. Some things may be different from what you are used to and if you pretend that you understand when you don’t the teacher will not know that you need help.

- Think up a situation in which you have not understood exactly what the teacher meant and discuss this with someone at home. Take turns to explain to the teacher what has happened.

  For example:
  “I am sorry Sir / Miss, I have been listening, but I don’t understand. Please could you tell me again.”
Settling into Madeley School
(and how to solve the problems you might face)

Sometimes something can happen at school that makes you upset or anxious. A lot of people feel like this especially when they are starting somewhere new.

- Keep calm. Tell yourself, “I can solve this problem if I stay calm.”

- Decide what the problem is.
  - Are you frustrated because you could not do something you wanted?
  - Are you upset because someone did something to you?
  - Are you worried because something has gone wrong?

- Think about possible solutions.

- Think about the consequences. What will happen if you try different solutions?

- Pick the best solution.

Talk with someone at home about what you would do in each of these situations in school.

1. You haven’t done your homework.
2. You have forgotten your student planner.
3. You are in a crowd going upstairs and you think someone pushed you.
4. You think you are lost.
5. You see someone being bullied.
6. You find someone crying in the corridor.
7. You’ve lost your purse/ wallet.
8. You find someone’s purse.
